

“Well I never knew that”

Into the limelight next is Judy Silvester. My thanks to her.

How long have you been playing bowls?

4 years

Your favourite piece of music?

Over the Rainbow sung by Eva Cassidy.

What did you do in your working life

Supporting children with physical and mental disabilities to access mainstream education. I was given the opportunity to gain a degree in Professional and Continuing Education and develop the innovative role of Inclusion Officer, advising and supporting out of school activities. I trained in Reflexology and worked in private practice and as a volunteer providing therapeutic care for the elderly with the Red Cross and for patients and careers in the Mountbatten Hospice. Most recently, Bill and I were hoteliers.

Which living person do you most admire?

The Queen

Favourite meal?

Steak pie with shortcrust pastry.

Favourite holiday destination?

Captiva Island in the Gulf of Mexico.

Favourite book?

Often the one I have just read The Keeper of Lost Things by Ruth Hogan.

Proudest moment?

The creation of our three lovely children and being here thus far to share our lives.

Favourite place to play bowls other than Bembridge?

Ventnor and it's whispering trees.

Favourite film?

Any and all Richard Curtis romantic comedies.
